

Co-funded by the Horizon 2020 programme of the European Union

3rd session of successful projects for Thematic Working Group 8 Marine Sciences & Technologies

15th June 2022, 14:00pm – 15:30pm (Brussels time), online

AGENDA

WELCOME

14:00-14:05 WELCOME

- Ricardo Haroun, ECOAQUA, University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, Canary Islands, Spain

PROJECT PRESENTATIONS

14:05-15:20 Successful projects presentation:

- Javier Roo, FORWARD Project coordinator, ACIISI, Canary Island
AQUAWIND project: “Innovative multi-use prototype combining offshore renewable energy and aquaculture on the Atlantic basin”
- Filipe Alves, MARE-CENTRE, Madeira.
“Study of the marine megafauna ecology in insular habitats at MARE-Madeira”
- Ayoze Castro, University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria. Canary Islands.
MARCET II project: “Promotion of whale watching ecotourism activity as a model of sustainable economic development by the protection and conservation of cetacean populations and increasing their value as a natural heritage of the Macaronesia”
- Paule Salvin, University of the French Antilles, France.
“Mangrove sediments efficient inoculum for biochemical systems”
- Marta Rodrigo, Canary Island Institute of Technology (ITC), Canary Islands.
MONITOOL project: “New tools for monitoring the chemical status in transitional and coastal waters under the WFD”

DEBATE SESSION

15:20-15:25 Opportunities and synergies

15:25-15:30 Closing remarks